

Our

Hey Diddle Diddle Activities

It is clear that our children all see the Spoon as the star of the show in Hey Diddle Diddle! So here are a few of our favourite spoon activities for you to try out at home.

Number Fun with Spoons

This is a great activity to build early counting skills and to flex those fine motor skills.

Creating Spoon Superheroes

A great little craft activity that will turn into hours of fun creating characters, story plots and more for these new heroes!

Nursery Rhyme Spoons

This is a brilliant resource easily created at home that develops our babies' and toddlers' independence and confidence to elect which song they would like during singing time.

Did You Know?

Hey Diddle Diddle is thought to of dated back to at least the sixteenth century!
